- E ☐ Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay at that time; or
- F ☒ Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:
Payment of restitution is to begin immediately. Beginning no later than 60 days after release from imprisonment, any remaining monetary obligations shall be paid in the amount of $382.35 per month for 34 months. During the period of supervision, the Court shall be notified of any changes in the defendant's economic circumstances as it pertains to the defendant's ability to pay the monetary penalty. The Court may adjust the payment schedule as the interest of justice requires. The Court reserves the opportunity to address any outstanding balance prior to the conclusion of your term of supervision. At that time the Court will consider all available sanctions, including civil remedies through the United States Attorney's Office.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
